

(c) whether they were given any additional allowance for the extra duties performed by them either in the form of upgraded posts or in the form of special pay ;

(d) the number of posts of Professors at the College of Agriculture, Dharwar, that have been upgraded to Class I and from what dates ;

(e) what were the considerations of upgrading only these posts and not the rest ?

A.—Sri N. RACHAIAH (Minister for Agriculture and Social Welfare).—

(a) 12 : 3 posts of Class I status in the scales of Rs. 350-1,100 and 9 posts of Class II status in the scale of Rs. 220-650. One more post in Class II was created in 1959.

(b) Two : viz., Professor of Mathematics and Statistics and Professor of Bacteriology both in January 1953 by the Government of Bombay. The work of the abolished posts was entrusted to the Professor of Agricultural Engineering. Professor of Agronomy and Professor of Agricultural Chemistry.

(c) No.

(d) Three. Two from 10th April 1953 and one from 30th August 1960.

(e) As the upgrading of two posts was ordered by the Government of Bombay in 1953 the reasons why they were so upgraded are not available. Evidently the upgrading was ordered with a view to attract fully qualified candidates. One post was upgraded in 1960 due to increased work in the subject.

MEMBER'S REPRESENTATION.

Mr. SPEAKER.—Sri Mallaradhya has a representation to make.

†Sri J. B. MALLARADHYA.—Sir, you will remember on the opening day of this session, I made a complaint that Government is making very inadequate arrangements for housing the members, particularly those of the opposition. This morning I received another report that my friend, the old Mr. Chamaiah has not been even allotted a convenient room. For the last three days not a single room is available for us to hold a party meeting. When I pressed the other day that some kind of reply is due from Government, you did not come to my rescue and we feel very strongly about this. If the Government is disinclined to engaging some rooms in Woodlands Hotel, I consider that it is a sort of insult to Members. We do not come here and ask for comforts and luxuries. We come here for the purpose of doing work and if even creature comforts are to be denied to members it becomes difficult. On behalf of the party which I represent I have to say that we are not prepared to accept more than one Member per room. If the Government insists that it should be so, we will have to consider as to whether we should work in this Assembly at all under such circumstances. It is very inconvenient for us. We are making a positive statement and if the Government insists that two people should live in the same room, so far as this party is concerned, we refuse to be covered to do a thing which is very inconvenient personally.

Sri B. SHAMSUNDAR.—Sir, previously I was getting a room for my self. That has been denied to me now. I came last night and to my dismay I found that there was no place for me to stay. As Mr. Mallaradhy said, we cannot live two persons in one room. We cannot allow anybody else to stay with us because we have to read, we have to think and we have to write something. It is not as though we just meet, vote and go away as we do in this Assembly. For two people to stay in one room would be inconvenient to both and if the Government persists in this I am afraid we will have to go away.

ಶ್ರೀ ಬಿ. ಎ. ಪುಟ್ಟಣ್ಣ.— ಸ್ವಾಮಿ, ಆ ಕಾರ್ಪಸ್ ಹಾನಿನಲ್ಲೆ.....

Mr. SPEAKER.—He belongs to the P.S.P. party. His leader has spoken. There is no need for him to speak. It is not fair to his own leader.

Sri G. N. PUTTANNA.—It is perfectly fair, Sir. I am speaking on the same point. I will convince you about it.

Mr. SPEAKER.—I am not here to hear the grievances of all.

ಶ್ರೀ ಬಿ. ಎ. ಪುಟ್ಟಣ್ಣ.—ತಾವು ನಾನು ಏನು ಹೇಳುತ್ತೇನೆಂಬುದನ್ನೇ ಕೇಳದೇ fair ಅಲ್ಲ ಅಂತ ಹೇಳಿದರೆ ಏನುಮಾಡಲಿ ? ನಾನು ಹೇಳುವುದನ್ನು ತಾವು ಸ್ವಲ್ಪ ಕೇಳಿ— P.S.P. ಲೇಡರ್ ಮಾನಾಡಿದ್ದಾಗಿದೆ. ಆದರೆ ಅವರು ಹೇಳದೇ ಕೈಬಿಟ್ಟಿರುವ ವಿಚಾರ ಒಂದನ್ನು ತಮ್ಮ ಗಮನಕ್ಕೆ ತರಬೇಕಾಗಿದೆ. ಅಲ್ಲ ಉಳಿಯಲು ರೂಮುಗಳೇ ಇಲ್ಲ. ಹಾಗಿರುವಾಗ ಬಾಡಿಗೆ ಫೋಟರನ್ನು ನುಮ್ಮನೆ ಅಲ್ಲ ತಂದು ಹಾಕಿಕೊಂಡು ವ್ಯಥಾ ಬಾಡಿಗೆ ತರುವ ಹಾಗಿದೆ.....

Mr. SPEAKER.—Before the Chief Minister gives a reply, I feel that in such matters a certain procedure should be evolved. It is not a question of myself hearing a grievance. It is only a representation made by the Leader of the Opposition. When a representation has been made by the Leader of the Opposition, a Member belonging to the same party should not stand up and express himself either agreeing with his leader or differing from him. It may not be incorrect for him to speak as a Member but it would not be fair to his leader and the party. I can understand if somebody from other parties desires to say a word or two. If a member of the same party desires to speak on the same point, it would not be proper or convincing.

†Sri B. D. JATTI.—Sir, if one or two Hon'ble Members are being inconvenienced, we will make necessary arrangements for that. We will provide them accommodation. But the rooms which were constructed sometime back were not constructed for accommodating individual Hon'ble Members. They were constructed for two persons. Now there is no use saying that it is not possible for two persons to stay in the same room. It is very difficult for us to construct rooms for each Member. The rooms were constructed for accommodating two persons in a room and all people have agreed for this. If there is any inconvenience for one or two members, we are prepared to make necessary arrangements. I am prepared to consider the cases of Mr. Chamaiah or Mr. Shamsundar or any other person who is particularly inconvenienced.

Sri J. B. MALLARADHYA.—I said that even for holding a party-meeting there is no room available. The Hon'ble Chief Minister does not even listen to our representations. For the last three days we have not met and important questions have come up for discussion and we cannot even meet. We have not a place where 30 persons could sit and talk.

Sri B. D. JATTI.—In the Legislator's Home we are not making arrangements for party-meetings either of my party or the Hon'ble Member's party.

Sri C. K. RAJAI AH SHETTY.—If there is a party.....

Mr. SPEAKER.— This is not the time nor the occasion for me to allow a discussion.

Sri C. K. RAJAI AH SHETTY.—There is another point.

Mr. SPEAKER.—I will allow him to speak about the point tomorrow if he brings it to my notice to-day. Moreover he cannot speak on this point because the leader of party has had his say.

Sri C. K. RAJAI AH SHETTY.—I have brought the matter to your notice. You said you have received some information.

Mr. SPEAKER.—I will give a reply tomorrow.

NINETEENTH REPORT OF THE BUSINESS ADVISORY COMMITTEE (Presentation)

Mr. SPEAKER.—I present the Nineteenth Report of the Business Advisory Committee.

Sri L. H. THIMMA BOVI.—I beg to move:

“That the Nineteenth Report of the Business Advisory Committee be agreed to by the House.”

Mr. SPEAKER.—Motion moved:

“That the Nineteenth Report of the Business Advisory Committee be agreed to by the House”
